WOW look at the pictures - they say it all

THE ULTIMATE RAINFOREST TREE HOUSE

The photographs of the property are stunning. In real life it is even more so.

The sounds of water falling over a huge rock shelf, of bird calls and forest sounds coming together to position you amidst a natural wonderland.

From the road you cannot see this amazing contemporary structure, it only appears out of the lush greenery as you move down the winding driveway. Stepping out of the car there is greenery still all around and not a sole to be seen.

Cleverly the architect has embraced the rainforest theme as even more green vistas greet you across the glowing hardwood floor as you enter and there is the rainforest this time, perfectly framed by timber joinery. And then so on, out of every window, as you move from room to room.
