UNDER CONTRACT - Ex Hobby Farm on the Fringe of Suburbia

From rural views down to the banks of Paynters Creek itself this acreage is so unique. The 22 acres planted over 20 years ago as a hobby orchard the trees are now well established. Ideal as a weekend getaway from the city as the present owners do, or use the charming little cottage as the perfect base while planning and building the dream home. The property boasts town water as well as water from permanent Paynters Creek. Sealed road frontage and 240 volt power connected. Tractor and slasher available by negotiation.
