DULONG TREE CHANGE

If a tranquil bush setting is what you seek this Dulong property is one to see. Located in an award winning development from the 1990's with trees all around you. As you can imagine bird life abounds with many species identified by the sellers. Koalas have been spotted and Sugar Gliders too. Upstairs there are 3 bedroom and 2 bathrooms plus small study/office. Open plan living featuring glowing cypress pine floors flows out to a huge deck allowing full appreciation of the magical sounds of nature only a setting like this can provide. Construction has begun downstairs on a 4th bedroom and open plan living area again opening to a massive covered space. The framework is in, it just requires electrical cabling and lining to finish off. The space could be taken a step further to become fully self contained. Adding to the livability of the downstairs attached to the huge covered entertaining area is linked to triple carports creating a massive party space. Garden studio in bush style that teenagers would die for. And so would creatives too of course.
